

Call for Artists

"Art on the Horizon"

Horizon Unitarian Universalist Church
1641 W. Hebron Pkwy
Carrollton, TX 75010

Offering a venue for local artists to exhibit their work in a solo exhibition for 6 weeks.

Our space can accommodate 15 – 20 large to medium works of art and more smaller works, depending on size.

Each exhibition is for 6 weeks beginning on a Sunday, and the work must be hung during the week prior, and picked up promptly during the week following the show.

Any work that is sold, gives a 20% commission to the church.

Guidelines:

- Two dimensional work only.
- Must be ready to hang, with wire, no sawtooth. Please do not bring work that is not properly ready to hang. It will not be accepted.
- Nothing over 50 lbs.
- Any theme or subject matter will be considered.
- Any medium.

If you are interested in submitting work for consideration, please email images or furnish a website where the work may be viewed, to HorizonArt@HorizonUU.org

We would like to put you on our schedule for a show during the 2012/13 year. We will be setting up interviews for February 18 and 19 in order to see some work in person before finalizing the schedule.

Linda Brooks Alred

Nikki Henderson

Marianna Seaton

Art on the Horizon

For information on the church visit: www.horizonuu.org

By exhibiting the work of local artists we support the visual arts in our community, as well as enhance the spiritual experience of all who view the work. We celebrate the spirit, talent and unique creativity of the artists whose work we exhibit.